

SCORE SHEET FOR POLICY AND ENVIRONMENT SURVEY

Name of Worksite _____

Number of Completed Surveys _____

Count the total number of “NO” answers for questions 1–9 for all surveys completed by the committee members. This is the EAT SMART score	Out of possible score = 9
Count the total number of “NO” answers for questions 10–15 for all surveys completed by the committee members. This is the MOVE MORE score	Out of possible score = 6
Count the total number of “NO” answers for questions 16–19 for all surveys completed by the committee members. This is the MANAGE STRESS score	Out of possible score = 4
Count the total number of “NO” answers for questions 20–24 for all surveys completed by the committee members. This is the QUIT NOW score	Out of possible score = 5

Look at the scores for all the four policy/environmental areas. High numbers indicate areas where policy and environmental changes are needed the most to make your workplace a healthier one.

Suggestions and ready-to-use resources for worksite policy and environmental changes in each of the four areas are provided at www.workwellnc.com.